Saanich Fair Draws Crowd

Sixty-Fourth Annual Exhibition Put on by the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society Proves to be One of the Best—Exhibits are of Excellent Quality—Competition Was Keen.

One of the largest crowds ever recorded was present at the Agricultural Hall and Park, Saanichton, on Wednesday when Lieutenant-Governor J. W. Fordham Johnson officially opened the 64th Annual Exhibition of the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society.

The executive of this historic fair, H. E. Tanner, president; Alex. McDonald and Fred Turgoose, vice-presidents, and Stuart G. Stoddart, secretary-treasurer, were in attendance to welcome the Lieutenant-Governor and his party, who arrived at the grounds at 2 o'clock, and after a tour of inspection the officials were warmly congratulated on the success of this 64th exhibition.

Among the patrons of the fair was J. T. McIlmoyl, 92 years of age, one of the last surviving members of the pioneer group present at the first exhibition held in the district 64 years ago. Another interesting fact is that there are in active membership in the society direct descendants of the founders of the society.

Immediately on entering the hall guests were faced with a display of cups offered for competition at this fair. The array of more than a dozen trophies included a new cup offered by the Saanich Pioneer Society for old-time quadrilles. Among other sections in the main hall was a very fine exhibit of Indian work, including woolwork, basketwork, quilts and garments, bread, fresh and preserved fruits, vegetables and flowers.

As is usual, there was a large display of potatoes and other vegetables, the entries being of excellent quality. Competition in the egg section was also surprisingly keen, there being 62 dozen on display in the various classes.

The central table of the hall was one mass of bloom, this excellent display of flowers attracting much attention.

One of the finest displays of its kind ever seen was that of the women's work on show in the gallery. This excellent showing caused a great many favorable comments.

School exhibits, also in the gallery, showed very high standards in plasticine moulding, salt maps, freehand drawing, water color drawing and many other designs included in the school curriculum.

The display of amateur photography was another section that was the scene of special attention. School sports were in progress on the fair grounds throughout the afternoon, as were also the competitions in the Highland events.

The splendid quality of purebred cattle and horses, goats and sheep was freely commented upon, as was also the fine showing of swine, rabbits and poultry.

FINE DRAMA SEPTEMBER 29

"Follow Thon Me" is the title of the four-act play to be presented on Friday, September 29th, in the Auditorium, Sidney, by members of the Saint John's Anglican Young People's Association, under the auspices of the Women's Guild of Saint Andrew's.

This is a Biblical drama and portrays the result of Christ's teaching on the household of Pontius Pilate at the time of the Crucifixion, and the manner in which Daniel, the scribe, wins over to Christ the members of this household in graphically brought out. Throughout the play a beautiful romance threads its way, culminating immediately after the Resurrection in a happy ending. All four acts take place in Pilate's palace.

This drama had been presented on several occasions in the past by these young people and all witnesses have been intensely gripped and no doubt all who are present at the Auditorium on September 29th will feel they have seen a drama of the highest order.

Most entries, prize given by Mr. W. Patterson, won by Mrs. Leon King. Exhibitors taking most points, prize donated by Mount Bros. Co., Ltd., won by Miss M. L. Shaw and Mrs. Leon King.

IT ALWAYS PAYS

The late William Wrigley, Jr., was the greatest depression merchandise the business world has ever known. Not only did he continue his customary advertising space during the periods of economic collapse, but he also seized upon these occasions as the best time to enter new fields, to bring out new products, or to try unusual selling methods, says the Literary Digest.

One time Mr. Wrigley was asked why he did not stop advertising after he had built up the world's largest chewing-gum business. Mr. Wrigley replied: "Did you ever hear of train-men taking off the locomotive after they got the train moving?"
—Kimberley Courier.

To repeat: Girls are inviting trouble who accept invitations to go on auto rides with unknown men. To the most elementary minds that would seem obvious, but that such a warning is required is demonstrated by the many news items and court cases one sees or hears about.

THE BEST PLACE TO LIVE

Thousands of people who left the rural communities during the past few years to seek places in the industrial centers, are now looking toward the farm again as the best place to live and earn a livelihood. Consequently, real estate men in most communities are receiving an increasing number of inquiries for farms, especially small tracts. These people who have been trying city life find from experience that the farm offers in a financial way, many advantages over the city for the family of small means, and that rural life is, after all, the most satisfying.

A jolly dance followed the program with a five-piece orchestra in attendance, Messrs. Black Bros., Gordon Mitchell and Frank Downie.

FAREWELL FOR MRS. WARK

Merriment ran high on Wednesday evening when about 40 people, some young and others feeling young, gathered in Wesley Hall to a farewell social in honor of Mrs. J. Wark, who left this week with her family to reside near New Westminster.

Around an imitation bonfire, which glowed in the centre of the hall, guests were seated on cushions, car seats, blocks of wood, and indeed almost anything available.

With the lights turned off and only the blaze from the bonfire, the evening opened with a lively singing, which was immediately hushed when "cats" arrived on the scene and the ten-dozen coils of corn soon vanished as the crowd in true picnic fashion "piled in."

Stunts and contests put on by various members of the group and entered into with gaiety all went to make up a very enjoyable evening.

A most happy event of the evening took place when Mr. W. H. Lowe, superintendent of the Sunday School, read a farewell note and Mr. W. G. Gush, choir leader, presented Mrs. Wark with a handsome blanket, from members of the choir and the teachers of the Sunday School, in both of which Mrs. Wark has been an active worker for many years.

This social evening was put on at the Young People's gathering, when members of the choir and the teachers and officers of the Sunday School united in holding a farewell for Mrs. Wark.

Mr. J. Wark and Mr. N. Watts, Mrs. Wark's father, were also guests of the evening.

LOCAL BOARD IS BUSY WITH MANY MATTERS

At the first fall meeting of the North Saanich Board of Trade held this week at Sidney, 27 new members were admitted to the board, bringing the membership to a new total of 111. The strength of this recently re-organized body is evidenced by the manner in which so many are lending their support to the work of the association and co-operating in the efforts of the board in the interests of the District of North Saanich.

During the last month the annual swimming gala was held at Sidney under the auspices of the board and was a success in every way.

Functioning committees presented reports on many matters at present projected, and resolutions were passed and action decided under the following headings:

POUND ACT

Following a canvass of the district it was decided to make application for the enlargement of the present pound district in order to include the whole district of North Saanich, and the committee in charge of this project has been given power to take all necessary steps to bring this about.

A further resolution was passed with reference to the administration of the Pound Act, which calls for the consideration of the amendment of the act as at present constituted in order to enable the Provincial Police Department to assist in the carrying out of the act. It is proposed to ask the Department of Agriculture to have the act changed to make it an offence to allow animals to stray on the public highways within any pound area, and to provide a small penalty, thereby giving the Provincial Police power to act in this regard. At the present time this power is solely in the hands of the poundkeeper, and there is no compulsion for action on his part.

SUNDAY SHOOTING

A definite attempt is to be made to have Sunday shooting prohibited within the district. With definite by-laws, the surrounding municipalities have for a long time prohibited all shooting on Sundays, and in consequence this district has been overrun by people from the surrounding areas, and in the more settled portions of this district this influx constitutes a menace to public safety. This matter has been placed before the Game Department and other departments of the government from time to time, and no satisfaction has been given. There has been no attempt intended to stop shooting on Sundays throughout the province, but simply a desire to protect our own people from the nuisance we are at present compelled to suffer. The resolution passed at the last meeting of this board calls on the Attorney General to provide a special ordinance to cover this district alone, as due to the geographical situation of the district such a ruling could easily be enforced. A recent canvass of the district by members of the board shows an overwhelming majority in favor of such a ruling.

BUS FARES

A recommendation was made to the company operating buses on the Sidney-Victoria route to consider the possibility of a reduction in the tariff along this route, it being felt that such a reduction would be conducive to increased patronage of this service.

Reports were made of action in the matter of the control of weeds, of representations made in the matter of contracts for supplies to Pier Island Penal Colony, of the forma-

BIG EVENT OF N.S. GOLF CLUB

Mrs. J. McIlraith retains Championship Cup at North Saanich Golf Club — W. T. Sisson beats Pat Hope in finals to capture the Frederick Championship Cup, which the latter has won for the past three years.

On Saturday, Sept. 17, members of the North Saanich Golf Club met on the links for the annual competition day and presentation of cups.

Very keen competition was shown in the ladies' approaching and putting, five competitors tying for third place, and there was a hard fight before the winner was decided.

The men's long drive was made by Pat Hope, but as two of his shots went wild the cup was won by W. T. Sisson, who averaged 225 yards with each of his three drives.

The cups were presented by Mrs. Pownall, wife of the vice-president of the club, who responded to the vote of thanks in a few well chosen words. A delicious tea was prepared by lady members of the club and was much appreciated by all present.
